

"Should we tell Mother and Father about Milt? They said we should not talk to strangers," says Jenna.

"Maybe this once, if we could show them, they would understand; but how can we do that? We will never make them believe us," Justin says.